Passaic County Technical Institute Remembers 9/11

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – A decade has passed since the devastating attacks of 9/11. In remembrance, Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) holds yearly assemblies to honor those lost in the tragic event.

Sandra Grazioso has been a speaker at PCTI for the past seven years. She shares her perspective of 9/11 with students, recounting the day she lost her two sons (executives of Cantor Fitzgerald) in the twin towers’ collapse. Her story relays that ache and loss never truly vanish and lends a personal voice to the event students of today are now too young to remember.

The assembly is a sobering lesson in the importance of honor and memory. Students guide the discussion by asking questions, effectively forging an emotional connection with United States history.
