PCTI Athlete Signs with Saint Peter’s University

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Recent graduate of Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI), Alexes Washington, made headlines when she signed an athletic contract with Saint Peter’s University for a full Athletic Division I Scholarship in track & field.

As a member of the MAAC (Metro-Atlantic Athletic Conference), St. Peter’s University will provide Alexes with the opportunity to run for Coach Mike Massone who has completed his eighth seasons as the Head Coach of Men and Women’s Track & Field. The Peacocks boast a competitive track and field program, having won back-to-back indoor/outdoor championships in 2011-2012.

Alexes is sure to raise her talents to the next level. As a premier sprinter and tremendous athlete of PCTI, she earned 11 Varsity Letters as a three-sport athlete and has received multiple BNC All-Liberty and PCCA All-County accolades. Academically, Alexes looks forward to pursuing a major in Business.

Best of luck to this outstanding young woman in the future!

PCTI Coaches Dean Campiglia and Jeff Cioletti join track star Alexes Washington (Clifton) as she signs her athletic contract with Saint Peter's University.
