PCTI Earns “Blue Star School” Title

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) has recently been recognized as a Blue Star School by Wise – “Working in Support of Education,” a program which strives to prepare students for the future by teaching them to become financially literate in all areas of education. Students achieved an average score of 80% or higher, making them Certified Financially Literate™ and earning them the distinctive title.

This tremendous feat ensures that students retain vital knowledge about their personal finances and are provided with the tools necessary for them to become financially capable young adults.

Congratulations to Passaic County Technical Institute on receiving this prestigious honor!

PCTI Academy of Finance Instructors Maria Matano and Thomas Woods, along with Supervisor Mohamed Khairullah, join students Nicole Sutton (Paterson), Kevin Cruz (Paterson), Justine Elia (Paterson), Sarah Velez (Paterson), Zierra Davis Codey (Paterson), Ariadna Grande (Clifton), Trisha Daraji (Passaic), Shoenstani Gil (Passaic), and Elianny Corrales (Paterson) in showcasing the Blue Star School banner.
