PCTI Holiday Drive Surpasses 1,000 Toys

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Students of Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) are fully embracing the holiday season by collecting toys for children. This year, more than 1,000 toys will be delivered through the Father English Community Center, which is part of the Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Paterson.

To encourage students to get involved, a charitable challenge was issued by PCTI Principal Dr. Michael Parent. The class that collected the most toys would receive their very own Spirit Day – a time when students can wear attire boasting school pride, rather than their usual uniforms. Seniors stole the show when they collected 399 toys!

Thanks to all for taking the initiative in spreading holiday cheer to those in need, making the season a little bit brighter.

PCTI students Jessica Loverdi (Little Falls), David Rodriguez (Paterson), Xiabelle Dominguez (Paterson), Zill Ratanji (Clifton), and David Pelle (Clifton) aid in loading a truck filled with more than 1,000 toys for children.
